Prep For Leadership: Management Series

The management series is for charter school principals and administrators to share best practices, and learn from successful members of the educational community.

Prep for Leadership™ assists principals in managing and reporting data, developing school improvement plans, recruiting, professional development, implementing intervention programs and getting support from parents. Learn how you can earn a Certificate of Leadership. www.therightprep.com

The series will run every Wednesday, 6-8 PM for 7 weeks, opening, June 29, 2011 with “On The Road to Success; Leading the Classroom, The School, and the Board.” Successful leadership in education requires a balance between the teachers in classroom, daily leaders of a school, and strategic oversight from the board. These roles may seem similar but are very different, and this lecture/workshop highlights how these leaders should interact and work together for mutual gain.

The series will progress by focusing on individual topics, ranging from accountability, to human resources, to budgeting and communications.

This series is open to whoever is interested in attending. To register or to see more topics please go to www.therightprep.com/charterschools.

Prep For Leadership: Teacher Development Series

The Right Prep is offering a lecture/workshop series for teacher development. The program is designed around easy exchange of ideas and teaching the fundamentals of different approaches. If there is considerable interest in a specific approach, an advanced session featuring training on that approach will be conducted.

Low cost, and brief sessions allow teachers, principals, parents, and anyone else who is interested, in developing new techniques, or just hearing about other options. Learn how you can earn a Certificate of Leadership. www.therightprep.com

The series will run every Wednesday 6-8PM for 7 weeks, opening June 29, 2011 with “On The Road to Success; Leading the Classroom, The School, and the Board. Successful leadership in education requires a balance between the daily leader(s) of a school, the teaching staff, and strategic oversight from a board. These roles may seem similar to some but are very different, and this lecture highlights how these leaders should interact and work together for mutual gain. Event 2, July 6th, will focus on Math Intervention and demonstrate Singapore Math.

Other topics include: assessments and reading/understanding some of the more common assessment tools, the Common Core standards, classroom management, reading intervention, special education, ELL, AYP and School Culture. To register please go to www.therightprep.com/charterschools.
